

TOXICOLOGIC PATHOLOGY

Title: Journal Collections Editor (Volunteer Role)

About the Journal: Toxicologic Pathology is the official journal of the Society of Toxicologic Pathology, the British Society of Toxicological Pathology and the European Society of Toxicologic Pathology. The journal is dedicated to the promotion of human, animal, and environmental health through the dissemination of knowledge, techniques, and guidelines to enhance the understanding and practice of toxicologic pathology.

Role Description: We are seeking a highly motivated individual to join our editorial team to organize, manage, and curate topical collections of Toxicologic Pathology journal articles. These collections are maintained on the Toxicologic Pathology website under the “collections” tab. This role is intended as a 1-year position. Preference will be given to individuals who are currently in veterinary or pathology training or in biomedical or toxicology graduate programs.

Responsibilities:

- Update already existing collections to ensure that the manuscripts included are up to date and relevant
- Coordinate with Managing Editor and Sage to populate and coordinate on-line manuscripts for special collections
- Collaborate with the editorial team to identify relevant and timely topics for special collections

Qualifications:

- Any Full, Student, or Emeritus Member of STP, BSTP, or ESTP (Preference will be given to individuals who are currently in veterinary or pathology training or in biomedical or toxicology graduate programs)
- Strong organizational and communication skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Attention to detail and commitment to high-quality standards

Benefits:

- Gain hands-on experience working with an Editorial team
- Increase your visibility within the toxicologic pathology community
- Mentorship in the publication process
- Meet monthly with our Associate Editors to hear their insights on scholarly publishing

How to Apply: Interested candidates should submit their resume and cover letter to TPX@toxpath.org.

Application Deadline: Applications will be received until May 15, 2025 or until a suitable candidate is identified.
